Malaxa Tries Again to Enter

By Drew Pearson

One of the most dynamic forces in the world is expected to seek readmission to the United States this week.

He is Nominie

Body.

He got a special bill introduced in the Legislature giving the state's new law firm the right to sue the state in federal court.

Under the new legislation, Congressmen Pat Williams of California, permitted to stay in the United States, will never pass, however, any Congressional bill that would interfere with the right of the people to keep and bear arms through a vote of laboration with the Nazi regime in Germany. He established close relations with German industrialists, including Albert Goering, brother of Hermann Goering. Maxxam gave Goering an interest in all his companies, including the Besitz Iron and Steel Works.

"At about the same time subject (Malaxa) began to subsidize the Romanian Iron Guard, a Fascist organization."

The report also told how Malaxa came to the United States originally as part of a Communist trade mission. He was the only industrialist the Communists favored in turning his property.

Helped by Nurses

Once in the United States, Malaxa gave the supplies to a man who had made his reputation fighting Communists. Richard M. Nixon, then Senator from California, Malaxa made Nixon's law partner secretary of the Western Tube Corp., a wholly owned Malaxa corporation which proposed building a plant near Whittier, Calif., Nixon's home town. This was in 1951.

Last month four years later—Congressman Walter sent an investigator, William Wheeler, to Whittier to report on the progress made by the Western Tube Co. since its incorporation in 1851. He reported that no building had been built and a concrete foundation had been removed.

"Construction of the factory was predicated on the approval of a loan from the RFO of approximately $30 million," Wheeler reported. "The loan

Romanian Held

In Florida

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16 (UPI)—The International Service today urged Romanian immigrants to remain in the United States, if possible, until it's determined whether they can return home.
